More Stuff to Ponder

- Everyone has a photographic memory. Some don't have film.
- He who laughs last, thinks slowest.
- Change is inevitable, except from a vending machine.
- Back up my hard drive? How do I put it in reverse?
- I just got lost in thought. It was unfamiliar territory.
- Seen it all, done it all. Can't remember most of it.
- Those who live by the sword get shot by those who don't...
- I feel like I'm diagonally parked in a parallel universe.
- She's always late, in fact, her ancestors arrived on the June Flower.
- You have the right to remain silent. Anything you say will be misquoted and used against you.
- I wonder how much deeper the ocean would be without sponges.
- Honk if you love peace and quiet.
- Pardon my driving, I'm reloading.
- Despite the cost of living, have you noticed how it remains so popular?
- Nothing is foolproof to a sufficiently talented fool.
- Just remember...if the world didn't suck, we'd all fall off.
- The 50-50-90 rule: Anytime you have a 50-50 chance of getting something right, there's a 90% probability you'll get it wrong.
- It is said that if you line up all the cars in the world end to end, someone would be stupid enough to try and pass them.

Arthur Forsyth
 1925 ~ 2017
 Art's family would like to extend sincere thanks, appreciation, and gratitude to all who supported us, either in thought or by visits as Dad's presence with us ended. He lived a long and happy life in the community he loved and would have been honoured at the support we received at his passing. Special Thank-yous to John, Karen and staff for their guidance and caring; to Shirley Russell for leading our Celebration of Art's Life; to Jody, Heitha, and Brent as well as Laurie Torgerson for their beautiful music; to The Museum members for the lovely lunch; and to Haley for bringing Grandpa's love and personality to us in the service. Many thanks to Dr. Kashur and the staff at Ashern Hospital for their kind and caring ways during Dad's last days. To Colleen, Theresa, and all of the Staff at the Eriksdale Personal Care Home - no words could ever express our appreciation of the love and support given to Dad during his 11 years with you. And Thank you to all family, friends, and neighbours who stopped with Dad for coffee, a chat, or just gave him a friendly wave on the road over the years. He was blessed to have all of you as we are. ~ Doug, Shelley, Pat & families

Some Spring Break ideas for kids...

• GO ON A PICNIC - Pull out your picnic basket and go on a picnic, even be in the back yard, or if it is cold outside, then lay out a blanket in the living room and have your picnic there. Let the kids make their own sandwiches and pack their own snacks. Your kids will love it!

• GO TO THE LIBRARY - See if your local library has any activities scheduled for the week. If nothing is planned, go and check out some new books to get out of the house.

• PLAN A FAMILY SLUMBER PARTY - Make sure it is complete with family movies and popcorn. Throw out some sleeping bags in the living room and party with the kids.

• LET YOUR KIDS PLAN OUT THE MEALS FOR THE WEEK - Kids love cooking in the kitchen. Have them help you plan out the meals and prepare the food. You could do personal pizza night or a taco bar. Let them get creative.

• LET YOUR KIDS BE IN CHARGE FOR THE DAY - Brainstorm ideas with them and let them plan out meals and activities for the day.

• PLAN A SCAVENGER HUNT - Make up a list of items and go to a park or go through the neighborhood and look for those items. You could even make it easy by doing a photo scavenger hunt so you don't have any items to pick up and bring home with you.

• HAVE A GAME NIGHT - Do you have a closet full of board games that you rarely get out and play? Take the time to have a family game night/day and see how many different games you can play.
